The First Reading

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF DEUTERONOMY

Moses said to the people: Obey the voice of the Lord your God, keeping those commandments and laws of his that are written in the Book of this Law, and you shall return to the Lord your God with all your heart and soul. For this Law that I enjoin on you today is not beyond your strength or beyond your reach. It is not in heaven, so that you need to wonder, Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it down to us, so that we may hear it and keep it? Nor is it beyond the seas, so that you need to wonder, Who will cross the seas for us and bring it back to us, so that we may hear it and keep it? No, the Word is very near to you, it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance.

P: Verbum Domini C: Deo Gratias

The Gradual

Custodi me Domine, ut pupillam oculi,
sub umbra alarum tuarum protégé me.
V. De vultu tuo iudicium meum prodeat:
oculi tui videant aequitatem.
Guard me as the apple of your eye, O Lord. Hide me in the shadow of your wings.
V. From you may my judgement come forth.
Your eyes discern the truth.

The Second Reading

FROM THE LETTER OF ST PAUL TO THE COLOSSIANS

Christ Jesus is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation, for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignties, Powers - all things were created through him and for him. Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity. Now the Church is his body, he is its head.

As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross.

P: Verbum Domini C: Deo Gratias

Aleluia. Te decet hymnus, Deus, in Zion: et tibi reddetur votum in Ierusalem. Alleluia.
To you our praise is due in Zion, O God. To you we pay our vows.

The Gospel

P: Dominus vobiscum
C: Et cum spiritu tuo
P: Sequentia sancti Evangelii secundum Lucam
C: Gloria tibi Domine

There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, 'Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the Law? What do you read there?' He replied, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.' 'You have answered right,' said Jesus. 'Do this and life is yours.'

But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his own mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said, "and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have." Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands' hands?' 'The one who took pity on him,' he replied. Jesus said to him, 'Go, and do the same yourself.'

P: Verbum Domini
C: Laus tibi Christe
