The Collect

Deus, per quem nobis et redemptio venit et praestatur adoptio, filios dilectionis tuae benignus intende, ut in Christo creditibus et vera tribuatur libertas, et hereditas aeterna.

God our Father, you redeem us and make us your children in Christ. Look upon us, give us true freedom and bring us to the inheritance you promised

P: per Christum Dominum nostrum.
C: Amen

The First Reading A READING FROM THE BOOK OF WISDOM

What man can know the intentions of God? Who can divine the will of the Lord? The reasonings of mortals are unsure and our intentions unstable; for a perishable body presses down the soul, and this tent of clay weighs down the teeming mind. It is hard enough for us to work out what is on earth, laborious to know what lies within our reach; who, then, can discover what is in the heavens? As for your intention, who could have learnt it, had you not granted Wisdom and sent your holy spirit from above? Thus have the paths of those on earth been straightened and men been taught what pleases you, and saved, by Wisdom.

P: Verbum Domini C: Deo Gratias

The Gradual

Domine, refugium factus es nobis, a generatione et progenie. V. Priusquam montes fierent, aut foraretur terra et nobis: a saeculo et in saeculum tu es Deus.

O Lord, you have been our refuge from one generation to the next. V. Before the mountains were born or the earth or the world brought forth, you are God, without beginning or end.

The Second Reading
FROM THE LETTER OF ST PAUL TO PHILEMON

This is Paul writing, an old man now, and what is more, still a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for a child of mine, whose father I became while wearing these chains: I mean Onesimus. I am sending him back to you, and with him - I could say - a part of my own self. I should have liked to keep him with me; he could have been a substitute for you, to help me while I am in the chains that the Good News has brought me. However, I did not want to do anything without your consent; it would have been forcing your act of kindness, which should be spontaneous. I know you have been deprived of Onesimus for a time, but it was only so that you could have him back for ever, not as a slave any more, but something much better than a slave, a dear brother; especially dear to me, but how much more to you, as a blood-brother as well as a brother in the Lord. So if all that we have in common means anything to you, welcome him as you would me.

P: Verbum Domini C: Deo Gratias

Alleluia. Domine, exaudi orationem meam, et clamor meus ad te veniat.
Alleluia.

Lord, listen to my prayer and let my cry for help reach you

The Gospel

P: Dominus vobiscum

C: Et cum spiritu tuo

P: Sequentia sancti Evangelii secundum Lucam

C: Gloria tibi Domine

Great crowds accompanied Jesus on his way and he turned and spoke to them. 'If any man comes to me without hating his father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, yes and his own life too, he cannot be my disciple. Anyone who does not carry his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. 'And indeed, which of you here, intending to build a tower, would not first sit down and work out the cost to see if he had enough to complete it? Otherwise, if he laid the foundation and then found himself unable to finish the work, the onlookers would all start making fun of him and saying, "Here is a man who started to build and was unable to finish." Or again, what king marching to war against another king would not first sit down and consider whether with ten thousand men he could stand up to the other who advanced against him with twenty thousand? If not, then while the other king was still a long way off, he would send envoys to sue for peace. So in the same way, none of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions.'

P: Verbum Domini

C: Laus tibi Christe

The Sermon

P: CREDO IN UNUM DEUM

Patrem omnipotentem, factorem coeli et terrae, visibilium omnium, et invisibilium.

Et in unum dominum, Iesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum

Et ex patre natum ante omnia saecula.

Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero.

Genitum non factum, con-substantiale Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt.

Qui propter nos homines, et propter nostram salutem descendit de celis.

Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria Virgine:

(bow) ET HOMO FACTUS EST.

Crucifixus etiam pro nobis: sub Pontio Pilato passus et sepultus est.

Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum Scripturas.

Et ascendit in coelum: sedet ad dexteram Patris.

Et iterum venturus est cum gloria, judicare vivos et mortuos: cuius regni non erit finis.

Et in Spiritum Sanctum, Dominum, et vivificantem: qui ex Patre Filioque procedit.

Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur, et conglorificatur: qui locutus est per Prophetas

Et unam, sanctam, catholicam, et apostolicam Ecclesiam.

Confiteor unum baptisma in remissionem peccatorum.

Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum.

Et cl vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.
